

FRIDAY

Crain, Matt and Rebekah (Aibai, Papua New Guinea) Remember Rebekah and the Tiffner family as they just lost a beloved family member. Pray for safety and wisdom as the Crains travel the treacherous roads and work on the building of a house. Two more teachers are needed for the 2008 school year.

Craven, Jerry and Linda (Taupo, New Zealand) Ask God to do a mighty work in the hearts of many teens during the summer teen camp January 7-11. Pray that the doctors will discern the cause of Nick's illness so he can recover and return to Bob Jones University next fall.

Craven, Rosemary (Sabga, Cameroon) Please pray that the Fulfulde Scripture calendars will bring forth spiritual fruit. Also remember the political situation in the area and Rosemary's preparations for her upcoming furlough.

Cunningham, Art and Debbie (Birmingham, England) Since the Cunninghams have moved to Birmingham from Slough, Art has begun a weekly outreach in a strict Muslim neighborhood. Art and Joseph Abraham have met several Muslims, some antagonistic and some willing to listen. Pray as they follow up their contacts.

Davis, Bill and Glenda (Heidelberg, Germany) The Davises gave out calendars that can witness the whole year through. Thanks for praying for fruit that remains from recent holiday outreaches. Pray that the messages and fellowship from the ski retreat (the first week of January) will bring forth fruit that remains and that God will bless the special meetings planned in February.

DiBagno, Frank and Sherry (Sant' Angelo di Celle, Italy) Frank and Sherry covet your prayers for their ministry of distributing Gospel calendars for the new year.

SATURDAY

Dotson, Tom and Jane (Brimpton, England) The Lord continues to bless with good opportunities to witness and the attendance of visitors at services.

Doyle, Ellen (Foumban, Cameroon) Intercede as Dr. Jack Mitchell goes to Cameroon to do a mobile dental ministry in the Northwest (Bamenda) area for three weeks in January. Also pray for Ellen's permanent residence card (ten-year visa) and for the airplane authorization so that medical trips can be taken into the bush.

Ferguson, Buzz and Judy (Newfoundland, Canada) Ask the Lord to bless the follow-up from many holiday activities. Pray that Christ will continue to be magnified and that folks will be faithful in spite of the winter weather.

Fisher, Eric and Barb (Majuro, Marshall Islands) Praise the Lord for the continued opportunity Eric has with a man interested in spiritual things. Pray that he will be stripped of his religious pride and exposed to his true need of an all-sufficient Redeemer.

Flannery, Mike and Cheryl (Saskatchewan, Canada) Pray for fruit from the Word of God as it goes out on the Mistawasis Reserve. Though in the native culture there is belief in a "Creator," it is a huge step for the people to trust in Christ the Creator for their salvation. There are many stumbling blocks. The Flannerys' continued prayer is that God will raise up the church to be a beacon of hope and truth and that He will bring a native pastor of His choosing.

Foster, Fred and Tabea (Sinsheim, Germany) Please pray for the seminar on church leadership with Juergen Matthia Jan. 4-6 and for scheduling of the 2nd block instruction course on hermeneutics. Pray for the preparation of faithful men to carry on the work.

SUNDAY

Recker, Matt and Debbie (New York City, U.S.A.) James made a profession of salvation and is meeting with Matt for discipleship and prayer. Remember him, his wife, and his three little girls. Debbie covets your prayers as she leads the children's church and enlists workers.

them. Pray for a fruitful visit.

Ritschard, Terry and Rachel (Goroka, Papua New Guinea) Songo returned briefly from building a house for his family. He has had a testimony among them and wants Pita to visit and explain his conversion to

Ruse, Ron and Brenda (Nova Scotia, Canada) Pray for a TV technician who tapes the service for the local cable channel. He is very interested in talking about the Bible.

Seawright, Chris and Heidi (Pursat, Cambodia) The believers in Preiy Nyee are planning an evangelistic outreach in Anlong Vul and will witness their first church wedding in February. Pray for Pisut and Aun's victory over alcohol.

Shelton, Stan and Grace (Vienna, Austria) Pray for an evangelistic children's club the Sheltons are holding in their home. Unsaved children attended recently, giving opportunity to talk with the grandmother of one boy. Ask for fruit as they reach out to their neighborhood.

■ MONDAY

Shelton, Tony and Debbie (Vienna, Austria) Intercede for the Sheltons' language studies. The previous location of their church book table is no longer available. Ask the Lord to open a new location for this year.

Smith, John and Sophie (Kitwe, Zambia)

Call on the Lord for the radio ministry in Kitwe. The Smiths are hoping to be on the air soon, but much work needs to be done. Also pray for good health; sickness makes ministry to the college students difficult.

Smith, Randy and Elena (Kiari, Papua New Guinea)

Remember the three preacher boys (Jems, Pol, and Sailas) and the three new Sunday school teachers (Alis, Ketrin, Rut) as they grow in the Lord and carry out their responsibilities. Pray for professing Christians who need to forsake the things of this world.

Spivey, Foy and Peggy (British Columbia, Canada)

The Nelson family is seeking the Lord's will and direction for their lives. They continue to be a blessing to the church family as they attend the services. Ask the Lord to continue working in the hearts of folks.

Studdard, Randy and Bonnie (Makary, Cameroon)

Recently a visitor approached Randy after a service and confided that he needed to get some things right with the Lord. Randy encouraged him to confess his sins and assured him of the Lord's forgiveness. Pray for God's continued working in hearts.

Talbert, Bud and Debbie (Alberta, Canada)

The next few months will be a transition time for Foundation Baptist Church as Michael Miller settles in and takes over the pastoral responsibilities. Bud will be presenting his new work with Foundation Institute to churches in western Canada and the States. His goal is to have his doctoral course work completed by the fall.

■ TUESDAY

Utter, David and Donna (Majuro, Marshall Islands) Pray for the salvation of some single men in their 30s who have been helping with the construction of the church building. Also, beseech God for the salvation of two unsaved husbands of church ladies.

Valcárcel, Martín and Linda (Barcelona, Spain)

Pray for the follow-up from all of the activities that surrounded the celebration of the nativity of the Lord. Ask God to continue working in the hearts of those who heard the Gospel.

Wright, Danny and Carrie (Foumban, Cameroon)

Please ask the Lord to open opportunities from the special services that were held recently. Danny and Carrie covet your prayers for safety as they travel to visit missionaries in the Far North of Cameroon.

Wright, Jim and Jenna (Makary, Cameroon)

Pray for an effective witness to Jenna's language helper.

Zartman, Tom and Jean (Monterrey, Mexico)

Intercede for Heidi's health; it is hindering her ministry. Tom and Jean covet your prayers as they continue to reach out to folks with a Bible study in Colossians. Ask the Lord to open doors; the Zartmans recently invited various folks to their home for a turkey dinner.

Abraham, Joseph and Louann (Birmingham, England)

Please pray that many in the Muslim community will respond to the Gospel. A woman who had left the church several months ago, came back recently. Please pray for her spiritual needs.

■ WEDNESDAY

Armstrong, Rick and Shirley (California, U.S.A.) The Armstrongs rejoice to see folks winning some of their family members to the Lord. Pray for Rick as he preaches in a conference in Uruguay and for Alberto, who has returned after a year of rehabilitation and will be going to Bible college in Puerto Rico.

Bachman, Zane and Pam (Makary, Cameroon)

Zane and Pam thank the Lord that Wassa was baptized and has recently joined the Bible study at Mada. He has given a good profession of faith in Christ and has shown himself faithful.

Bachorik, Doug and Ruth (Manila, Philippines)

Praise the Lord for a wonderful, challenging, stretching first year of the Bachoriks' second term. Ask God to work through them so they will be used to strengthen churches and believers and be more effective in reaching the lost.

Barilla, Mark and Rachel (Foumban, Cameroon)

Mark plans to return to the States this month for the delivery of the Barillas' third child. Please pray for the other Foumban missionaries as they take Mark's ministry responsibilities in his absence.

Beaman, Todd and Kathy (Kitwe, Zambia)

Todd and Kathy are involved with a street witnessing outreach and looking to start a Bible study. Ask the Lord to give them wisdom as they look for a storefront to rent for the study and as Todd teaches in two classes at Central Africa Baptist College starting in February.

Bender, Stephen and Marcy (Eyemouth, Scotland)

Stephen and Marcy praise the Lord for what He has been doing among all the youth ministries. Several children in the after-school club recently indicated their need for salvation. Pray also for God's protection upon the Bender family.

■ THURSDAY

Berbin, Mike and Janice (Aibai, Papua New Guinea) Pray for God's working in the hearts of the young people who recently attended special meetings. The Aibai youth need to be submitted to the authority of the church leaders. Praise the Lord for the salvation of Pauline, Regina, Vitus, Jerry, Susan, Robus, Eddy, Efege, and Peter in the last several months. Ask the Lord to strengthen them.

Berrey, Tim and Laura (Manila, Philippines)

Please pray for the second installment of BJMBC's Continuing Education for Pastors program in Bicol. Seminary-level education is being offered to the pastors January 14-18. Pray that God's Word will run and be glorified and that the ministry will be acceptable to the brethren.

Blaisdell, Jennie (Valencia, Philippines)

Please intercede for James and his sister Ivy. These two young people have served the Lord faithfully for two years. Please pray for God's leading in their lives.

Boss, Diana (Tampamolón, Mexico)

Praise the Lord for an increase in attendance at the ladies' class on Tuesday afternoon. Ask God to bless the class and Diana as she prepares. Remember the Saturday youth meetings.

Cochran, Martha (Chiba, Japan)

Pray for lasting fruit from various Christmas outreaches. Kawamura San, who is 92 years old, made a profession of faith. Pray for assurance and growth as Pastor Maruyama visits him almost weekly. Pray that more children and teens will be reached for Christ.

Cornelius, Tony and Martha (Roseau, Dominica)

Intercede for a man Tony knows who has been going through a rough time spiritually, which seems to stem from some questions he has. Pray that he will seek the Lord and His Word for the answers and that Tony will have spiritual wisdom to guide him back to the Lord.
